Story Time at Library to feature cast from “The Hobbit”

Summary:

(March 25, 2004)-A delightful event for pre-school children is set from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. Saturday, April 3, at the Morris Public Library. Story Time at the Library, sponsored by the TREC program, will welcome cast members from “The Hobbit,” the children’s theater production by students at the University of Minnesota, Morris. The cast will perform excerpts from the play as a preview of the full production, which opens April 16 in the Proscenium Theatre at UMM. They will also read passages from the J.R.R. Tolkien novel and involve children in some creative dramatic activities.

All ages are welcome children ages 3-9 are especially encouraged to attend.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
